FIRST WEEK CHECKLIST

BIKE LOCKS

If you're bringing your bike to campus, we suggest using the "U" shaped lock to discourage theft. Don't forget to register your bike at the front desk.

RENTERS INSURANCE

We recommend that you get some type of renters insurance. UNO does not provide personal property insurance. Discuss this with your family's insurance carrier or an independent insurance carrier.

FIND YOUR MAILBOX IN THE UV OR MV CLUBHOUSE

You will receive your mailbox number and combination at move-in. Make sure you check your mailbox often throughout the semester.

MEET YOUR NEIGHBORS

Your neighbors are the folks you'll see around Housing and campus all year. Take time to introduce yourself and get to know them. Campus will begin to feel more like home as you make connections with those around you.

GET INVOLVED

UNO offers many opportunities to get involved outside of the classroom. Students who are involved in clubs and organizations are more likely to have a positive campus experience and succeed academically. Check out the clubs and organizations that exist on campus (or figure out how to start your own)

INTRODUCE YOURSELF TO YOUR RA

Getting to know your RA is a great way to begin to get connected at UNO. They are here to help you navigate the transition to living on campus.

FIND YOUR CLASSES

Review your class schedule and figure out where your classes will be held. Take a walk through campus and visit each classroom or meeting space. Knowing how to get to class ahead of time will make your first week go smoothly.

GET YOUR BOOKS AND CLASS MATERIALS

Visit the Maverick Store in the Milo Bail Student Center or online at unomaverickstore.com to pick up your textbooks and class materials. Don't forget to grab some UNO swag while you're there, too!

LIVING WITH ROOMMATES

KNOW THE RULES

Living with other students is a great opportunity, but it works best when everyone follows the same rules. Take time to read our community policies at housing.unomaha.edu.

IT'S OK TO COMPROMISE

Everyone has different habits. Living with roommates means finding a middle ground. If you think trash should go out twice a week but your roommates think once every two weeks is fine, try meeting in the middle and take it out weekly. Being flexible makes things easier for everyone.

SHOW RESPECT

You may be different from your roommates—and that's okay! Respect each other's backgrounds, opinions, and ways of living. It's a chance to learn and grow together.

BE RESPONSIBLE

Take care of your space and be mindful of your roommates. At the start of the year, your RA will help your group fill out a Roommate Agreement. This required step helps everyone set clear expectations and share the space better.

All residents will receive a link to a short online training module with information about living with roommates and creating a positive environment in your apartment!

DISCUSS COMMON ISSUES

OVERNIGHT GUESTS

Unannounced, too frequent, or disrespectful behavior

NOISE LEVELS

Volume level of music/TV or guests

FOOD

Sharing or cooking

COMMON CLEANING

Sharing supplies, different definitions of clean, taking out trash, washing dishes, or clutter

POLICY VIOLATIONS

A roommate violating policies within the apartment

TEMPERATURE

Deciding on a temperature that works for everyone

ADDRESSING AN ISSUE

Roommate Conflicts Happen. Living with others can lead to disagreements, but the key is to handle them the right way, so they don't become bigger problems. Here's what to do:

1 TALK IT OUT

Your roommate won't know something's bothering you unless you say it. Have a face-to-face conversation and explain what's going on. Try to find a solution or compromise that works for everyone.

2 ASK YOUR RA FOR HELP

If talking doesn't fix the issue, reach out to your RA. They're trained to help with conflict and can lead a calm, fair conversation to help you and your roommates work things out.

3 KNOW YOUR OPTIONS

If things still aren't working, you can ask to move to a different room. Just know that your roommate won't be moved—you would need to switch, and only if there's a spot available. This is a last resort after all other steps have been tried.

- If you're removed from campus housing due to a conduct violation, you're still responsible for the full housing contract.
